FUNDRAISING SPOTLIGHT: SUSAN DEMPSEY!

For my 70th birthday celebration in May, I wanted to do something meaningful, so requested that instead of gifts, my friends and family donate to a couple of my favourite non-profit organizations. Friends of Music was top of the list. Here's the reason. Over the few years I've been involved, I have seen miraculous things happen when people come together to play music in a heartfelt and inclusive way. So, I wanted to both spread the word about FOM, and help support the wonderful opportunities they offer. A big thanks to all who donated in honour of my next decade. Janet said the response was great. It's been a wonderful way to celebrate, and to give back to the community, all in one small request. I highly recommend it. And much appreciation for my wonderful experiences in Ukelelians and, more recently Eclectics, where I get to play Ken Beattie's accordion so generously donated (although I doubt I'll ever live up to his playing).
